SEVEN RACES AT BENNING

Good Card for Last Day of Steeplechase Meeting.

Running of the Renewal of the Military Race the Feature—Two Events on the Flat.

The running of seven races this afternoon at Benning will bring the second annual fall meeting of the United Hunt and Racing Association to a close.

The prominent gentlemen who are fostering this class of sport are enthusiastic over the strides that have been made under conditions that have not always been favorable, and with each succeeding meeting they feel that the interest is bound to increase and the racing itself will steadily grow in favor among the large element of cross-country devotees.

The card this afternoon brings out nearly all of the contestants in the previous two days' racing, and as there has been fine sport and thrilling finishes there is likely to be more of it this afternoon.

There are six horses entered for the renewal of the Grand Military Steeplechase, and it will be the feature of the card. Should only four of them start, there will be a contest well worth seeing, for there is keen rivalry among the army set, and the New York militiamen. Four other steeplechase and two races on the flat will complete the list of events to be run.

The entries for to-day follow:

First race—Maryland Selling Plate, for three-year-olds; about six furlongs.	Second race—The Virginia Handicap Steeplechase, about three and a half miles.
